

Come spend the night in a historic Forest Service cabin or fire lookout. The Umatilla National Forest currently has eleven rentals with two more available in the near future.

These recreation rentals are offered to the public under the Federal Lands Recreation Enhancement Act. Rental fees are retained locally to help maintain and preserve these historic properties

#1 - CLEARWATER LOOKOUT CABIN

Perched at 5,600 feet elevation, this cabin offers uncluttered views of the Wenaha - Tucannon Wilderness. The small, 1935 vintage, wood-framed cabin sits on a green, grassy clearing at the foot of a Lookout Tower. Divided into a kitchen and a bedroom, it is furnished with one double bed and two single beds. The cabin is kept warm in the winter by a propane heater, and features propane lights and a refrigerator.

#2 - CLEARWATER BIG HOUSE

Clearwater Big House lives up to its name with 868 square feet of living space on the first floor, and 336 square feet upstairs. It has three bedrooms, a living room, and a kitchen. There are two queen, two full and two twin beds, which can accommodate up to 10 guests. The cabin is equipped with propane heating, lighting, stove and refrigeration.

#3 - WENATCHEE GUARD STATION

The Wenatchee Guard Station, a single story wood cabin, sits in a grassy clearing. It features a living room, kitchen and bedroom, and is furnished with two single beds, a double bed (all with mattresses), chairs and a table. The cabin is equipped with propane heating and lighting. The kitchen has a propane stove and refrigeration.

#4 - GODMAN GUARD STATION

Built in the 1930s, this two-story, wood frame structure is surrounded by tall timbers. It features three bedrooms, a living area, kitchen and bathroom, and is furnished with three bunk beds, two single beds, a couch, chair, and a table with chairs. The kitchen is equipped with a propane stove and refrigerator. There are propane lights and heat throughout the cabin.

#6 - FRY MEADOWS GUARD STATION

Constructed in the early 1930's by the Civilian Conservation Corp, Fry Meadows is a two-room cabin with a combined living room/sleeping area and a kitchen. The cabin sits in a meadow and offers visitors a rustic cabin experience. It is furnished with four beds with mattresses and a table with chairs, and the kitchen is equipped with a propane cook stove. Both rooms have propane lights, but there is no heating.

#7 - SUMMIT GUARD STATION

The view from this rustic, ridge top bunkhouse is breathtaking. The cabin has one multi-use room for cooking, sleeping and relaxing. Furnished with a table, four chairs and four beds, the cabin is also equipped with propane lights, a propane heater and range.

The following four cabins are located at the historic Fremont Powerhouse site near the town of Granite. The cabins were constructed in the 1930s and are listed on the National Register as a Historic District.

#8 - FREMONT CONGO GULCH

Fremont Congo Gulch is a two-story cabin, tucked under a large Douglas-fir tree. It features three bedrooms, a bathroom, kitchen and living room. The cabin is furnished with beds for six, two futons, and a table with chairs. The kitchen is equipped with an electric stove, oven, and refrigerator. The cabin hosts electric lights and oil heat. Water is available during the summer months.

#9 - FREMONT HILLTOP HIDEAWAY

This cozy little cabin features one bedroom, bathroom, kitchen and living room. The cabin is fully furnished with a queen bunk bed, a couch, and a table with chairs. The kitchen is equipped with an electric stove, oven, and refrigerator. The cabin has electric lights and oil heat. Water is available during the summer months.

#10 - FREMONT MINER'S RETREAT

Featuring a covered front porch, this quaint cabin has two bedrooms, a bathroom, kitchen and living room. The cabin is fully furnished with four twin beds, a futon, and a table with chairs. The kitchen is equipped with an electric stove, oven, and refrigerator. The cabin has electric lights and wall heaters. Water is available during the summer months.

CARETAKER'S CABIN

The caretaker's cabin is a two story structure. The two upstairs bedrooms have enough twin beds to sleep six. The downstairs has a large kitchen, dining room, and living room. The all electric appliance kitchen is equipped with a nice variety of cooking and serving dishes and utensils. The bathroom features a claw foot bath tub.

#12 - DITCH CREEK GUARD STATION

The cabin is a one-story cottage with a bedroom, living room, and a kitchen. The bedroom is furnished with two bunk beds. The living room is comfortably furnished with a table, four chairs, a futon, two easy chairs and a heating stove. The kitchen is well equipped with a refrigerator and cook stove.

#13 - TAMARACK LOOKOUT CABIN

Converted from a shed to a cozy, one room cabin, Tamarack is packed with amenities. It is furnished with a set of bunk beds and a wood table with five chairs. The cabin is equipped with propane lights, a heating and cook stove and a refrigerator.
